

Guide to Woodminster Amphitheater for Patrons with Disabilities or Limited Mobility

Part of the charm of Woodminster Amphitheater is its rustic and rural environment. The amphitheater itself is an historic WPA construction that is nearly 80 years old, and the setting is the beautiful hillside Joaquin Miller Park. We want everyone to be able to enjoy this idyllic, woodsy environment, and we are always eager to work with our patrons to make sure each theater-goer has comfortable access to our shows.

If you or someone in your party has a disability or limited mobility, ordering your tickets early and talking on the phone with a person when ordering will do much to assure your requirements and comfort. Call 510-531-9597. Our box office, located at Woodminster Amphitheater in Joaquin Miller Park, is staffed between 11 am and 4 pm, weekdays after June 1 and every day after July 1 until the end of the season. (Before June 1, you'll get quicker response by calling Harriet at 510-339-0241.)

Amphitheater Access

We have spaces for wheelchairs with adjacent companion seats at the top of the amphitheater in sections 1, 2, 4, and 5, as well as close to the stage in Box A. Those at the top of the amphitheater are wheelchair accessible from the Upper Gate (across from parking lot 5), and those in Box A are accessible from the Lower Gate (from parking lot 1). Both gates have paved path or ramp access, and there are accessible bathrooms on both levels.

The performance-night box office is at the Upper Gate, but patrons with actual tickets in hand may use either entrance. Will-call pickup for phone sales and online purchases is at the Upper Gate, so we suggest that if your tickets are in Box A, you arrange to receive your tickets in advance.

Parking With Disabled Persons Placard

There are a limited number of parking places in parking lot 1 and parking lot 5 that are reserved for patrons with Disabled Persons Placards. We suggest if you need one of those, that you arrive at least an hour before the performance, or at least 90 minutes on Saturdays, when people are often setting up pre-show picnics by 5:30. Persons with mobility devices may also be dropped off near either entrance. Most of the spaces in parking lot 5 are covered with wood chips because the lot is also a dog park, necessitating a drop-off in the paved area.

Picnic Facilities

A number of picnic tables inside the amphitheater may be purchased by theater-goers and are available in advance by phone or at the box office. There are several on the same level as the main gate that do not require patrons to climb stairs, and two of them are easily accessible by wheelchair.

Your Comfort and Safety

Keep in mind that when you arrive for shows in July or August, it will still be light; in September, it will be darker. Since it's a park, the lighting when you leave will be minimal, so be ready to use your flashlight app getting back to your car. Always wear casual, comfortable clothing and shoes that support your feet as you walk on various surfaces. No matter how warm it is where you live, it may be 15 degrees cooler at the amphitheater, so bring warm coats or blankets and just leave them in your car if you don't need them.
